REMEMBER ALWAYS

I am the Riffle, the Cougar's yearbook.
Remember the young and carefree ways
Of your teenage years and your high school days?
Of happy hearts so young and free,
And while remembering, don't forget me . . .

I am that friend that you loved so well,
That final exam you almost failed.
The high school ring you love above all
And the plans you made for the senior ball.
The dances and games that were held for you,
The afternoon rallies and assemblies, too,
The questioning smile on a teacher's face,
The winning score in a track meet race,
The cheerleaders dressed all in blue and white
And the kids all yelling, "Fight for Victory, Fight!"

The senior tree and co-ed P.E.,
And frat socks and short skirts above the knee.
Boys in cord levis and tennis shoes,
The Riffle staff and the Hangtown Noose,
The many things that you hold so dear,
From your freshman days to your senior year.

It is all here if you care to look,
For I am the Riffle,
The Cougar's yearbook!

Dedication

ROBERT L. LUNG

It is with pride that we dedicate this 1964 Riffle to Mr. Lung, our principal, who has become a vital part of El Dorado High School and the community. His ability to project wisdom and understanding into the problems of students, teachers, and citizens, and his capable and fair decisions as an administrator have earned for him the high esteem and admiration of all who know him.

A native of Sacramento and a graduate of Sacramento High School and Sacramento Junior College, Mr. Lung received his degree with a major in history at the University of California in Berkeley. His graduate work has been completed in the field of history and school administration.

In 1936 he came to Placerville, and El Dorado High School welcomed him as a member of the faculty. He was soon active in civic affairs by becoming a member of the County Planning Commission. Today he is chairman of Civil Defense and a member of the Recreation and Development Committee on the Planning Commission.

This is our tribute to a leader who has given unselfishly of his time and varied talents. He has the courage of his convictions and innate good will for his school and this community. For this drive and integrity of character, Mr. Lung, El Dorado will always remember you, and thank you.

Father and Son.

Remember Always!

Chip off the old block!

What a catch for young Bob Lung!

I'm afraid I'll have to run you in.

Three deans of El Dorado High

Nice day for fishing, eh, boys?

May 29, 1917
November 22, 1963

Parting is death . . . a passion comes to an end; it is carried off in a coffin . . . it drops out of life one way or another, and the earth-clods close over it, and we see it no more. But it has been a part of our souls, and it is eternal. — Thackeray

This year Mrs. Williams carried on with the Creative Writers' Club started by Mr. Harvey. The club has grown quite a bit due to the interest promoted by the new Creative Writing class. A new school publication has been started by the club, a booklet called the Omega, and consists of work submitted by the club members.

Congratulations, Creative Writers!

The End

Dearest,

Dear, I can't find the needed words to express my deep love for you. Dear, I love what you wrote in my riddle, because I know that ^{you} mean every word of it, and I do mean that I love you more than any-thing in this world. Dear, we have had the best times of our live together, but ^{we} are just starting. Dear, I know that we are never going to break up because we are too close for anything like that to happen, we love each other too much. Dear, I'll never regret what we did, it really means a lot to me, because that is when we really proved our love for each other. Love, I am glad summer is here again, so we can spend more time with each other, I miss my lover, when we were in school. Dear I am glad that you want to marry me, because I want you so much it is killing me, Dear, I know that we will have the best marriage ever, because of our trueness with each other. P.S. LOVE YA!

Always yours.

Love Charles

 I don't know you to well but I do know about you I think you are a pretty nice guy. Lots and lots of luck in your senior year.

Bob,
 your a real neat
 guy and I'm glad I got to know you this year.
 History and typing have been some need. I hope we have some classes together next year.
 Be good. Lots of luck in the future.

Love ya!
